

CPD training

Ireland Branch Western District

22 April 2010

Carlton Hotel, Dublin Road, Galway

19.00–21.00

IOSH CPD Courses Officer Fiona Gelling will deliver free training to members on how to use the new online CPD system. Our online CPD has received excellent feedback and is proving much simpler to use than the previous version. Fiona will explain the system and how to update your records to help you make sure your CPD record is always up to date.

What's in it for me?

If technology scares you or you just haven't had a chance to use the new IOSH website, Fiona will help you and get you up and running in this session. Plus, the session is FREE.

Who should attend?

This event is essential for any IOSH members who want help keeping their CPD records up to date.

Please bring your IOSH username and password to get maximum benefit from the event.

What you need to know

The evening will be divided into two one-hour sessions, starting at 19.00 and 20.00, with a maximum of 25 people per session. Although the event is free, you need to book a place in advance so we can plan the sessions. Please fill in the booking form on the next page and indicate which session you want to attend.
