INTRODUCING MESSRS GOLDBLATT AND WRIGHT YOUR INSPIRATION FOR THE DAY

REFRESHING TRAINING SINCE 1999

GETS YOU BACK TO YOUR BEST
Who are you when you’re at your very best?

Do you wonder what gives trainers their get-up-and-go? Do you envy trainers who are always positive and full of life? Do you wish you were one of those trainers who people keep coming back to?

At this year’s Training Roadshow we’ve got just what you need to communicate your passion for training and inspire great learning. Whether you’re a commercial trainer or you deliver courses in your own organisation, we’ll help you to really connect with delegates, managers and clients.

Our patented pick-me-up will help you:
- find out who you are when you’re at your best
- shake off old habits and find positive motivation
- communicate your passion to the people around you
- regain energy and enthusiasm for your work
- speak from your heart and get people to buy into you.

Inspirational expert Craig Goldblatt will help you reconnect with your best self and find out how you can become even better. Craig will challenge you to strip back the layers of habit you’ve gathered over the years, explore why you do the things you do and reveal the things that really matter to you. You’ll find out about your own unique qualities and discover an energy and enthusiasm that will inspire the people around you.

Marketing professional Tracey Wright will get you thinking about how throwing off the corporate cloak can help you get your message across. The way we connect with people has changed, and old formalities have given way to more relaxed conversations. It’s about being honest and opening up two-way communications that let people see the real you. You’ll see how successful brands do it, and find out how it can work for you.
Craig Goldblatt inspires people to ‘challenge life’, follow their hearts and be the best they can be. He has travelled and learned from many cultures in places such as the Amazon rainforest and West Africa. Craig shares his learning with people across the world, helping them to explore their own strengths, motivation and passions through presentations, training, coaching and life-changing journeys. www.craiggoldblatt.com

Goldblatt and Wright’s patented prescription for following your heart

- Find something you’re passionate about (hopefully health and safety)
- Believe in what you’re saying (we tried making it up and got found out)
- Give it your all, never anything less
- Let others in on the journey and respect what they have to say
- Have a true purpose: set your goals and shoot to score
- Discover your true self (a side effect of following your heart)
- Most importantly, enjoy yourself – we spend so much of our time at work, it’s only healthy to enjoy it.

Disclaimer
We hope to help you follow your heart and love what you do. If, however, your heart tells you to give it all up and become a base jumper, we respectfully distance ourselves from any involvement.
