

IOSH data protection and privacy statement

In accordance with section 4 of the Data Protection Act 1998 and the IOSH data protection policy, any personal data you give us will be used in connection with your contract with us and so that we can provide you with services.

As a member of IOSH, you're agreeing to let us contact the universities or colleges where you gained your qualifications so that we can verify the content and standards of the courses you followed, if necessary.

To fulfil your membership criteria, we'll use your data to:

- let you know about member benefits and ask for your views
- administer your membership record
- provide details of your membership category and length of membership to prospective employers who ask us for this information
- send you governance, financial and other documentation
- send you mail from our subsidiary, IOSH Services Limited.

You can choose how you receive information from us. Once you've registered with our site, just log in and click 'My details', then 'Edit mailing preferences' to change your mailing preferences. Need help? Email membership@iosh.co.uk or call us on +44 (0)116 257 3198.

From time to time, we use third-party agents to perform tasks on our behalf (eg our annual conference organiser and the SHP magazine publisher).
