All fees include lunch, tea, coffee, course paperwork and, where appropriate, marking and moderating assessment papers and issuing certificates.

Accommodation and travel

Accommodation and travel aren't included in the fees. We've negotiated discounts with local hotels – we'll send you a list when we confirm your registration.

We recommend you call us two weeks before your course to make sure it hasn't been changed or cancelled. We aren't responsible for your travel cancellation charges.

Special requirements

The Grange welcomes course delegates with disabilities. The conference rooms have induction loops and are accessible by wheelchair.

Please tell us about any special needs on the registration form. Our meals are provided by a catering company, so we need to have details of dietary requirements – including food allergies and vegetarian or vegan diets – in advance.

Copyright

Course notes, handouts and some presentation print-outs are included in your fees. Course literature is protected by copyright and can't be reproduced without the tutor's permission.
